Dear Marge,

11/21/84

I am about to produce a completely updated version of the list of all known descendants of John Grunwald and Elizabeth Crittenden, and would like to include the birth/marriage/divorce/death data from this year's Annual Reunion.

Do you have that information? If you do, and can get it to me by the end of the year, I would appreciate it very much.

Sincerely,
Robert Powell

THANKSGIVING (PSALM 103)

Bless the Lord, oh my soul,
Let the anthem ring.
Forget not all his benefits
With happy heart, I sing.

He heals all my diseases,
He forgives me when I sin;
He is merciful and gracious;
Where shall my praise begin?

He gives me food and shelter,
And clothes to keep me warm;
He gives me strength for each new day,
And shelters me from harm.

Bless the Lord, oh my soul
For all that makes my life worth living;
For love and joy and peace of heart,
I thank You, Lord, on this Thanksgiving.

11-21-1984, P. 2

a small and not very enthusiastic band of Protestants gathered in the Presbyterian Church to give thanks. I sat by the Margaret Russell/Samuel S. Soner pillar & was summoned over to the Yepsens, with whom sat I didn't want to but had to because they asked. The music is very nice--the traditional Protestant Thanksgiving music. Rev. Bartholomay pointed out that Michaelmas was one of the early forms of Thanksgiving & then Bartholomay pointed out a Biblical precedent in Deuteronomy, I believe. Rev. Starzer, Mr. Starzer, Paul Starzer, Manny Winters, Mr. Stoddard, Bill Wallick, and Louise Anderson & spoke to, in addition to the Yepsens, of course. Shall I attend the Ecumenical Service at the BBC in the morning? Or versa.

Spoke with Smithy(?) at Smithy's -- a man in his 50s or early 60s, always grinning with grease & oil but very friendly and dignified -- about the possibility of his changing the oil in my Renault -- also a new calculation in his mind & then said -- $13.00. "If you want, I'll grease it for $3.00, while I'm at it." Excellent. I shall go there on Friday morning and have the job done.

No RTP report -- all seem to be well; HRP returned about 4:30, as WSP and I were seated in the kitchen talking. WSP gave me an ad from today's Tribune --
